11:30 -12:15	HIGH-LEVEL PANEL 2 (online & in-person)
	Financing in Common: All Stakeholders to Join Forces with Public Development Banks A coalition of Public Development Banks (PDBs) can contribute to the transformation of the financial system. Yet PDBs alone cannot lead a systemic shift towards green and sustainable finance. They have to join forces with other stakeholders for a worldwide economic recovery aligned with the SDGs and the Paris Agreement. How can we contribute to aligning all financial flows to the Paris Agreement and the SDGs? What is the best way to leverage each actor's expertise? How to coordinate public and private sector efforts? SPEAKERS Werner Hoyer, President, European Investment Bank (EIB) Tim Adams, President and CEO, International Institute of Finance (IIF) Gayle Smith, President and CEO, One Campaign – TBC MODERATOR Inger Andersen, Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations & Executive Director of the UN Environment Programme (UNEP) – TBC

Social investment can strengthen societal resilience by simultaneously generating economic, employment, social inclusion and environmental benefits. Since 2008, however, it has fallen short of mounting needs, particularly at the local level. This event calls for more and better social investment, especially in infrastructure, as part of an integrated response to the Covid-19 crisis, the climate emergency, and rising social inequalities. It focuses on the challenges faced by local authorities, and proposes a renewed role of PDBs. SPEAKERS Rosa María Sánchez-Yebra Alonso, Vice-Governor, Council of Europe Development Bank (CEB) Lamia Kamal-Chaoui, Director, Centre for Entrepreneurship, SMEs, Regions and Cities, Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Agnes Soucat, Director, Health Systems, Governance, Financing, World Health Organization (WHO) Jan Vapaavuori, Mayor, City of Helsinki MODERATOR Shada Islam, Managing Director, New Horizons Project VIDEO Anousheh Karvar, French Government Delegate to the International Labor Organization (ILO)

	Financing Local Action and Resilient Cities: The Role of Subnational Development Banks The session aims to enhance awareness about the role of SDBs in Sustainable Financing, and to foster more effective technical and financial partnerships to advance the implementation of SDGs, especially in developing regions. The speakers will be invited to address issues such as: How can SDBs enhance their performance? How can they connect their role and products to the new sustainable finance agenda? How do they relate to governments and other banking institutions at regional, national, and global levels? How could multilateral and national banks expand SDBs’ potential to generate development impact? SPEAKERS Sergio Suchodolski, President, Banco de Desenvolvimento de Minas Gerais (BDMG) Mari Elka Pangestu, Managing Director of Development Policy and Partnerships, World Bank Group – TBC Teresa Ribera, 4th Vice President and Minister for the Ecological Transition and Demographic Challenge, Government of Spain Antonella Baldino, Chief International Development Finance Officer, Cassa Depositi e Prestiti (CDP) MODERATOR Sébastien Treyer, Executive Director, Institut du développement durable et des relations internationales (IDDRI)	Building Back Better with a Biodiversity-Positive Economy The management of biodiversity and ecosystems and their contributions to people well-being and the global economy is not just an environment issue but an overarching and cross-cutting issue for sustainability, resilience and building back better in the context of unseen impacts of the Covid-19 crisis. The situation is felt by most global and national institutions and many influential individuals as a call to link human development and planet preservation in a more practical and efficient manner, through long-term approaches to development finance and public budgeting that take better account of environmental imperatives and the preservation of the ecosystem base of all human livelihoods. SPEAKERS Elizabeth Maruma Mrema, Executive Secretary, UN Convention on Biological Diversity Frank Elderson, Chair, Network for Greening the Financial System (NGFS) and Executive Director, Supervision, De Nederlandsche Bank (NDB) – TBC Jennifer Morris, Chief Executive Officer, The Nature Conservancy Luis Carranza Ugarte, President, CAF Development Bank of Latin America MODERATOR Juan Pablo Bonilla, Manager, Climate Change and Sustainable Development Sector, Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) - TBC
