11:30 -12:15	HIGH-LEVEL PANEL 2 (online + in-person)
	Financing in Common: All Stakeholders to Join Forces with Public Development Banks (PDBs) A coalition of Public Development Banks can contribute to the transformation of the financial system. Yet PDBs alone cannot lead a systemic shift towards green and sustainable finance. They have to join forces with other stakeholders for a worldwide economic recovery aligned with the SDGs and the Paris Agreement. How can we contribute to aligning all financial flows to the Paris Agreement and the SDGs? What is the best way to leverage each actor's expertise? How to coordinate public and private sector efforts? SPEAKERS Werner Hoyer, President, European Investment Bank (EIB) – TBC Tim Adams, President and CEO, International Institute of Finance (IIF) – TBC Gayle Smith, President and CEO, One Campaign – TBC MODERATOR Inger Andersen, Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations & Executive Director of the UN Environment Programme (UNEP) – TBC

	Accelerating Investment for Climate Adaptation and Resilience The event will bring together financial institutions with a public mandate, governments, the private sector, the Global Centre for Adaptation and other key organisations, to identify ways for accelerating private sector finance for adaptation and resilience. The event provides the launch pad for greater public private collaboration within the context of the international COVID-19 response to stimulate private sector investments and catalyse domestic markets for the business solutions needed to address local adaptation and resilience needs, including supporting those that are most vulnerable to climate impacts. SPEAKERS Nick O'Donohoe, Chief Executive Officer, CDC Group – TBC Patrick Verkooijen, Chief Executive Officer, GCA – TBC Ban Ki-moon, Chair of the Board of the Global Center of Adaptation, 8th Secretary-General of the United Nations – TBC MODERATOR Zeinab Badawi, Broadcaster, BBC World - TBC VIDEOS Akinwumi Adesina, President, African Development Bank Group (AfDB) – TBC Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation – TBC Willis Towers Watson, Chief Executive Officer, Resilient Investment – TBC	Key Role of Public Equity in Financing Both the Post-Covid-19 Recovery and Responsible Investment How can public investors provide concrete measures to cope with the crisis while contributing to long-term transformations towards a more resilient economy? The massive use of debt to finance the economic recovery will not be efficient unless it is linked with capital injections to support businesses and developmental projects. Equity financing and the specific role of public long-term investors will be key to reconcile the economic recovery with a more inclusive and sustainable development. The local, European and international solutions created and implemented by the French Caisse des Dépôts and its partners to contribute to social and environmental transitions will be presented. SPEAKERS Eric Lombard, Chief Executive Officer, Caisse des Depots - TBC Odile Renaud-Basso, President, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD) – TBC Hamid Tawfiki, Chief Executive Officer, CDG Capital– TBC Mabouba Diagne, Vice President, Finance and Corporate Services, ECOWAS Bank for Investment and Development (EBID)– TBC MODERATOR Laurent Zylberberg, President, European Long-Term Investors Association (ELTI)– TBC

16:00 -16:45	Development Banks as Actors for Change Towards Gender Equality The panel will address the role and impact of development banks in the achievement of gender equality described in SDG5 and in the promotion of inclusive and sustainable finance for gender responsive policies. A presentation of a field study on gender equality within IDFC will illustrate this commitment, as well as concrete examples of the financing of gender and climate justice. SPEAKERS Ece Börü, Chief Executive Officer, TSKB – TBC Vanessa Mungar, Director of Gender, Women and Civil Society, African Development Bank Group (AfDB) – TBC Anne-Marie Levesque, Head of gender equality, FinDev Canada – TBC Seblewongel Negussie, Gender and Social Specialist, Green Climate Fund (GCF) – TBC MODERATOR Daniel Seymour, Director Strategic Partnerships, UN Women – TBC VIDEO Delphine O, Ambassador, Secretary General of the Generation Equality Forum 2020 – TBC	Social Investment for People, Planet and Prosperity The Covid-19 pandemic has revealed the vulnerability in our societies to the mutually reinforcing impacts of growing inequalities, environmental degradation and climate change. Social investment can strengthen societal resilience by simultaneously generating economic, employment, social inclusion and environmental benefits. Since 2008, however, it has fallen short of mounting needs, particularly at the local level. This event calls for more and better social investment, especially in infrastructure, as part of an integrated response to the Covid-19 crisis, the climate emergency, and rising social inequalities. It focuses on the challenges faced by local authorities, and proposes a renewed role of PDBs. SPEAKERS Rosa María Sánchez-Yebra Alonso, Vice-Governor, Council of Europe Development Bank (CEB)– TBC Lamia Kamal-Chaoui, Director, Centre for Entrepreneurship, SMEs, Regions and Cities, OECD– TBC Agnes Soucat, Director, Health Systems, Governance, Financing, WHO– TBC Jan Vapaavuori, Mayor of Helsinki – TBC MODERATOR Shada Islam, Managing Director, New Horizons Project– TBC VIDEO Anousheh Karvar, French Government Delegate to the International Labor Organization (ILO) – TBC

	Financing Local Action and Resilient Cities: The Role of Subnational Development Banks The session aims to enhance awareness about the role of SDBs in Sustainable Financing, and to foster more effective technical and financial partnerships to advance the implementation of SDGs, especially in developing regions. The speakers will be invited to address issues such as: How can SDBs enhance their performance? How can they connect their role and products to the new sustainable finance agenda? How do they relate to governments and other banking institutions at regional, national, and global levels? How could multilateral and national banks expand SDBs’ potential to generate development impact? SPEAKERS Sergio Suchodolski, President, Banco de Desenvolvimento de Minas Gerais (BDMG)– TBC Mari Elka Pangestu, Managing Director of Development Policy and Partnerships, World Bank Group – TBC Teresa Ribera, Minister for the Ecological Transition, Government of Spain– TBC Antonella Baldino, Chief International Development Finance Officer, Cassa Depositi e Prestiti (CDP) – TBC MODERATOR Sébastien Treyer, Executive Director, Institut du développement durable et des relations internationales (IDDRI)– TBC	Building Back Better with a Biodiversity-Positive Economy The management of biodiversity and ecosystems and their contributions to people well-being and the global economy is not just an environment issue but an overarching and cross-cutting issue for sustainability, resilience and building back better in the context of unseen impacts of the Covid-19 crisis. The situation is felt by most global and national institutions and many influential individuals as a call to link human development and planet preservation in a more practical and efficient manner, through long-term approaches to development finance and public budgeting that take better account of environmental imperatives and the preservation of the ecosystem base of all human livelihoods. SPEAKERS Elizabeth Maruma Mrema, Executive Secretary, UN Convention on Biologic Diversity– TBC Frank Elderson, Chair, Network for Greening the Financial System (NGFS)– TBC Jennifer Morris, Chief Executive Officer, The Nature Conservancy– TBC Luis Carranza Ugarte, President, CAF Development Bank of Latin America – TBC MODERATOR Juan Pablo Bonilla, Manager, Climate Change and Sustainable Development Sector, Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)– TBC
