	HIGH-LEVEL PANEL 2 (online)
11:30 -12:15	Financing in Common: All Stakeholders to Join Forces with Public Development Banks A coalition of Public Development Banks (PDBs) can contribute to the transformation of the financial system. Yet PDBs alone cannot lead a systemic shift towards green and sustainable finance. They have to join forces with other stakeholders for a worldwide economic recovery aligned with the SDGs and the Paris Agreement. How can we contribute to aligning all financial flows to the Paris Agreement and the SDGs? What is the best way to leverage each actor’s expertise? How to coordinate public and private sector efforts? SPEAKERS  Werner Hoyer, President, European Investment Bank (EIB)  Timothy Adams, President and Chief Executive Officer, International Institute of Finance (IIF)  Gayle Smith, President and Chief Executive Officer, One Campaign  Dr. Rajiv J. A presentation of a field study on gender equality within IDFC will illustrate this commitment, as well as concrete examples of the financing of gender and climate justice. SPEAKERS  Meral Murathan, Executive Vice President, TSKB (Industrial Development Bank of Turkey)  Vanessa Mounzar, Director of Gender, Women and Civil Society, African Development Bank Group (AfDB)  Anne-Marie Levesque, Head of Gender and Impact, FinDev Canada  Seblewongel Negussie, Gender and Social Specialist, Green Climate Fund (GCF) MODERATOR  Daniel Seymour, Director Strategic Partnerships, UN Women VIDEOS  Delphine O, Ambassador, Secretary General, Generation Equality Forum 2020  Rémy Rioux, Chief Executive Officer, Agence Française de Développement (AFD)  ShelInvest Project, European Investment Bank (EIB)	Social Investment for People, Planet and Prosperity The Covid-19 pandemic has revealed the vulnerability in our societies to the mutually reinforcing impacts of growing inequalities, environmental degradation and climate change. Social investment can strengthen societal resilience by simultaneously generating economic, employment, social inclusion and environmental benefits. Since 2008, however, it has fallen short of mounting needs, particularly at the local level. This event calls for more and better social investment, especially in infrastructure, as part of an integrated response to the Covid-19 crisis, the climate emergency, and rising social inequalities. It focuses on the challenges faced by local authorities, and proposes a renewed role of PDBs. SPEAKERS  Rosa María Sánchez-Yebra Alonso, Vice-Governor, Council of Europe Development Bank (CEB)  Lamia Kamal-Chaoui, Director, Centre for Entrepreneurship, SMEs, Regions and Cities, Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)  Agnes Soucat, Director, Health Systems, Governance, Financing, World Health Organization (WHO)  José Luis Martínez-Almeida, Mayor, City of Madrid MODERATOR  Shada Islam, Managing Director, New Horizons Project VIDEO  Guy Rider, Director-General, International Labor Organization (ILO)
